LONDON CONFERENCE ON THE SUEZ CANAL ISSUE REPORTED LAUNCHED ON A GOOD START

BULLETIN

London, (AP)—The Western Big Three proposed today that the operation of the Suez Canal be made the responsibility of an international board, including Egypt linked to the United Nations. U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, on behalf of the United States, France and Britain, presented a four-point plan for solving the international crisis blown up by Egyptian President Nasser's nationalization of the vital waterway.

Dulles told the 22-nation Suez conference the board proposed by the West would be established by treaty and would provide for operation of the canal in accordance with the 1888 Constantinople convention.

The plan would insure that the board could not be dominated by any single power or group of powers and would open the canal to all powers.

By LYNN HIENZERLING

London, (AP)—The 22-nation Suez conference got off to a fast start today, although the Russians emphasized they consider this parley "just a first step" in solving the crisis created by Egypt's nationalization of the canal. Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov made a bid to broaden the conference to include 24 other nations—including Red China—but agreed to waive procedural objections and expressed willingness to help in a peaceful solution to the dispute.

Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser, who boycotted the conference, kept an eye on the proceedings by sending some of his foreign affairs experts to London as sideline observers.

Sentiment For Nixon Appears To Be Growing

San Francisco, (AP)—Republicans expect to work out in closed session tonight their first rough draft of their 1956 platform.

Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois said it will have a strong civil rights statement. It may urge the arming of Israel to help preserve Middle East peace, reported New York City's Gen. Jacob K. Javits.

Morganza Matron Accused of Cutting During Argument

Washington, Pa. (AP)—50-year-old ex-matron of Morganza state training school near here was free today on $1,000 bond pending a hearing in connection with the slaying of a teen-age girl inmate.

No date for the hearing has been set.

Mrs. Alveta Harris, of Washington was arrested yesterday by state police and county detectives. She was taken before Alderman James Mawhinney and charged with aggravated assault and battery.

Mrs. Harris, a widow, admitted cutting the girl on the abdomen after a dormitory argument last Thursday. She maintained she used a pocket knife for self-defense, but the girl said Mrs. Harris attacked her with a razor.

Police said another girl inmate, cleaning the dormitory, found a straight-edged razor behind a radiator.

State Evaluation Team Arrives To Study High School Problem

The decision on whether Warren is to have a new high school or continue to occupy the old structure on Market street is now in the minds of three education officials who comprised an evaluation team which visited here yesterday. Their report is expected within six weeks.

Melvin G. Keller, Warren Area Joint School Board president, John Mallory, Jr., county superintendent, and Dr. Carl E. Whipple, district superintendent, met with the committee and discussed various aspects of the local school situation.

Topics included enrollment estimates for September of this year, population and enrollment trends to 1970, application for state approval of project for a high school building and tentative room scheduling for a new building.

The three men will confer and report to the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction. Their report should come before the local board sometime in September. The three men evaluation committee was composed of Max C. Harwick, Indiana County Assistant Superintendent, chairman; John D. Beck, Clinton County Superintendent and H. Clair Henry, Jefferson County assistant superintendent.

If their decision calls for construction of a new building in Warren, another group from the Department of Public Instruction will arrive to decide on the most suitable site.

Ex-President Says He's In Fight to the Finish!

Chicago, (AP)—Harry S. Truman said today he will carry on his fight for the nomination of Averell Harriman as the Democratic candidate for president "to the finish."

Just about the time the former president talked with newsmen The Associated Press delegate count showed enough new passengers on the Adlai Stevenson bandwagon for an indicated first ballot nomination at tonight's session of the party's national convention.

Truman interrupted a series of conferences for the avowed purpose of making clear that the Harriman fight would be carried to the convention floor.

SEEP AGENCY POSTS HIKE IN CRUDE PRICES

Bradford, (AP)—The Joseph Seep Purchasing Agency of the South Penn Oil Co. posted, effective today, the following increased prices for producers' Pennsylvania grade crude oil runs and credit balances:

Bradford district oil in Bradford Transit Co., $4.68.

Bradford district oil in National Transit Co., $4.68.

Middle district grade oil in National Transit Co., $4.50.

Pennsylvania grade oil in National Transit Co. Southwest Division, $4.21.

Pennsylvania grade oil in the Eureka Pipe Line Co., $4.03.

Bradford district oil was increased 11 cents a barrel; the other grades six cents a barrel.

Seep stated:

"National Transit Co. and Eureka Pipe Line Co. have obtained from duly authorized regulatory commissions increases in pipe line charges, effective today, thereby necessitating adjustment of posted prices to maintain crude oil delivered costs on competitive basis to refineries located from Butler to Warren."

Immediately upon hearing the news it was stated that the United Refining Co. in this city will meet the increases posted by the Seep Agency.

COMMISSIONER DIES

Somerset, (AP)—George E. Kline, 49, chairman of the Somerset County Board of Commissioners, died of a heart attack early today about 15 minutes after he was admitted to Somerset Community Hospital. Kline, whose home was at Somerset Rd. 5, was elected commission chairman last November. He was a Republican.

Senator Duff and Party Are Early On Scene In 'Frisco

San Francisco, (AP)—Sen. James H. Duff (R-Pa.) was in this California city today well in advance of the Republican National Convention which starts next Monday.

Duff arrived by plane last night with Mrs. Duff and his administrative assistant, Gerson H. Lush.

Duff said that he was firmly convinced of three things in connection with the coming GOP convention:

President Eisenhower will be re-nominated.

So will Vice President Nixon.

A platform will be adopted without dissent in conformity with the policies of the Eisenhower administration.

The senator, referring to the Democratic National Convention now in progress at Chicago, had this to say:

"The Democrats at their convention have had to face what they say about Eisenhower in order to get up any steam at all."

Duff, who is running for re-election this fall against Democrat Joseph S. Clark, Jr., former Philadelphia mayor will be busy in the pre-convention days as chairman of a subcommittee on national defense, part of the general platform committee.

State Cracks Down on Sales Tax Delinquents

Harrisburg, (AP)—The State Revenue Department today ordered a penalty crackdown on some 15,000 state sales tax delinquents.

"The department directed its investigators to visit firms, delinquent in paying the 3 per cent levy, inspect their books and make 'immediate assessment' of penalties unless they present a satisfactory explanation of failure to make tax returns.

The department estimated in mid-July that 30,000 firms were delinquent in payment of the tax but said that since then half of them have paid up or have accounted for their initial failure to file returns.

Republicans Still Lead Registrations In County 2 to 1

Warren County Republicans continue to have more than twice as many names on county voter registration rolls as the Democrats.

Figures to date show 11,820 listed in the GOP and only 5,149 Democrats. Total registration figure in the county is 17,366.

The sum includes 263 non-partisan, 131 prohibitionists and three Socialists.

Leaders of both parties are urging members to pump for greater registration figures as the final date to get on the voter roll nears. Registration closes at Warren County will be held at the various

Ohio Man Faces Federal Charges of Kidnap-Rape

Lewisburg, (AP)—Harry Bloomer has been committed to jail in Williamsport to await trial on federal charges of kidnapping and raping a 17-year-old babysitter.

The 23-year-old Youngstown, Ohio, man was arraigned here before a U. S. commissioner yesterday, only hours after he was captured while peacefully eating a meal in a farmhouse near Wellsboro in north central Pennsylvania. No date has been set for his trial.

Bloomer's capture ended a 15-state manhunt that began 20 hours previously when 17-year-old Betsy Long of Sweet Valley, Pa., staggered into a service station at Wayland in western New York and told police she had been kidnapped the night before and raped twice.

Bloomer told police he was engaged to the girl and that they had been planning to run away and get married.

Harriman Strength In Penn'a Delegation Cracks Wide Open

By LEONARD A. UNGER

Chicago, (AP)—Harriman strength in Pennsylvania's Democratic delegation cracked wide open today as an aftermath of convention acceptance of what Gov. Leader termed "a good civil rights plank."

Three delegates, previously pledged to New York's Gov. Averell Harriman for the presidential nomination, switched over to Adlai Stevenson. They became the first in Pennsylvania to do so.

With all signs pointing to the early nomination of Stevenson, the lineup of openly committed Pennsylvania delegates shaped up this way: Stevenson 63%, Harriman 9% and 1 uncommitted.

The explosive civil rights issue threatened, for a time, to split the delegation last night.

It was a case where, although most of the delegates favored a stronger civil rights plank, the Stevenson supporters were fearful to press the point because it could have upset the Stevenson bandwagon.

Earlier in the day the Philadelphia delegates, led by Rep. William J. Green Jr. insisted on backing a minority report of the Platform Committee calling for enforcing the Supreme Court decision on school desegregation.

The sense of the minority report was endorsed by the entire delegation at a hotel session in the afternoon and Leader was designated to check with other Northern delegations on missionary work for the minority plank.

The word came back to the delegation on the convention floor that the minority report would be pushed to a floor fight. Leader called an off-the-floor caucus to determine what the sentiment was at that moment.

The half-hour session was closed to newsmen and most of the delegates couldn't hear what Leader and Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh said from the caucus rostrum.

Although the position taken in the afternoon was re-affirmed by a voice vote, the drive began to pull on some leaders.

Former Senator Taylor Leads Iowa Primary Race

Boise, Idaho, (AP)—Former Sen. Glen Taylor held the lead by an eyelash today—more than 36 hours after the polls had closed in Idaho's Democratic Senator primary—but was far from a sure victor in his second try for a political comeback.

Only nine of the state's 893 precincts are uncounted, and it is uncertain whether they could change Taylor's 36-vote lead over his closest opponent, Frank Church, a Boise lawyer and political newcomer.

Recounts and legal challenges could make it weeks before the final results are in and voters will know who is running against the Republican incumbent, Sen. Herman Walker.

Field For Second Place on Dem Ticket Is Still Wide Open

By ROBERT GOLDSTEIN

Chicago, (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson, coasting confidently toward his second Democratic presidential nomination, today kept the field for a running mate wide open.

Roger Tubby, Stevenson's press secretary, said at least six names are "on the list."

Tubby identified the six as Senators Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota and Albert Gore of Tennessee, Mayor Robert Wagner of New York and Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey.

Stevenson has refrained pointedly from giving any hint of his preference, insisting he has made no deals.

Humphrey is the only one of the six who has campaigned actively, although several of the others have let it be known they are available.

Stevenson has had words of praise for every man mentioned on the list—and for Gov. Frank J. Clement of Tennessee, who dropped around last night to Stevenson's suite in the Sheraton-Blackstone Hotel.

Clement, who has been mentioned as a possibility for the No. 2 spot on the Democratic ticket, told newsmen, "I sought no commitments and I received none. That was not the purpose of my visit."

Clement, the convention keynoteer who will receive his state's 32 votes on the first ballot tonight, did not say why he called on Stevenson.

Kennedy visited with Stevenson in the former Illinois governor's Conrad Hilton Hotel headquarters earlier in the day.

Stevenson's aides have pencilled only one tentative engagement on today's schedule—a triumphant appearance at the convention after the nominee is selected.

SOUTHERN VOTES WITHHELD PENDING ACTION ON CIVIL RIGHTS FLOCKING TO ADLAI

By WILLIAM T. PEACOCK and JACK EELL

Convention Hall, Chicago, (AP)—The Democrats, safely past the shoals of a possible party-shattering fight over civil rights, sailed happily today into the formalities of naming Adlai Stevenson as their presidential nominee.

Tensions had swept away and left a gay mood among the delegates who trooped back into this hall to listen to the "man who" speeches and joined in the traditional whoopla accompanying the placing of the names of the presidential hopefuls before the convention.

The balloting will come at tonight's session, and nobody doubted for a moment that it would be Stevenson on the first.

In delegation caucuses, a big march was on to the 56-year-old former Illinois governor and 1952 nominee.

Decisions in morning meetings of delegations quickly shot him above the winning total, based on The Associated Press poll of delegate preferences.

Six additional votes from North Carolina put him over the top. Kansas had just thrown in 16. Together, the two states gave Stevenson 690—or 3½ more than needed for the nomination.

Still to come were a flock of Southern votes which had been held uncommitted pending action on the civil rights plank. The convention's defeat early today of attempts to force in a "strong" plank cleared the way for the Southerners to take a stand.

But most of the other one-time hopefuls for the nomination were of a mind to let their names be presented to the convention. In some instances, there was the thought of a possible build-up for the future. The opportunity to be praised simultaneously on most of the country's radio and TV stations doesn't come often.

The Tennessee delegation announced that Governor Frank Clement, who had his day in the spotlight as convention keynoteer, was withdrawing as a favorite son candidate. The Tennesseans delayed action as to where their 32 votes will go until a caucus on the floor.

Governor Averell Harriman of New York, who made the chief challenge to Stevenson in the week's maneuvering, insisted he was still in serious contention. He fired a telegram to all chairmen of state delegations telling them:

"I have just talked with President Truman. We are determined to fight through to the nomination tonight regardless of any rumors to the contrary you have heard or may yet hear."

But to the delegates the remaining unanswered big question of the convention was who is to be Stevenson's running mate.

One of the names which had figured in speculation seemed to be scratched by a morning development. This was an announcement that Stevenson had asked Senator John Kennedy of Massachusetts to make the nominating speech for him.

It seemed improbable that Stevenson would have tapped the boyish-looking Kennedy for this honor if he were minded to have him on the ticket as the No. 2 man.

The tabulation of publicly avowed first ballot preferences, showed this lineup:

Stevenson, 690.

Harriman, 228.

Others, 256.

Uncommitted, 198.

Needed to nominate, 686½.

The Associated Press tabulation of publicly avowed first-ballot preferences showed Stevenson with 675½ votes—just 11 short of the number needed for the nomination. Harriman had 232½, others had 257 and 207 votes remained uncommitted.

Some of those stating first-ballot preferences, however, might be prevented from casting them that

Average Gasoline Tax Paid By Motorists Now 8.8c Per Gallon

It was announced today by Elmhurst Oil Company that with the latest increase of 1c in the Federal Tax on Gasoline, which became effective July 1, the direct Federal and State Taxes in Pennsylvania now total 9c per gallon, as opposed to 7c per gallon in New York.

On the national average, the direct State and Federal Taxes now total 8.8c per gallon; this amounts to more than 40% of the average retail price for gasoline, taxes excluded. This is several times greater than the tax on even the so-called luxury items. With this latest increase, the nation's annual motor fuel tax bill will top four billion dollars. The average motorist will be paying more than $66.00 per year for State and Federal Gasoline Taxes.

By law, these direct taxes must be collected at the point of sale and turned over to the governments involved. The money raised from these taxes will be used to improve the nation's roads. The need for new and improved roads to make driving safer and more pleasant for everyone has long been recognized, and this nation should have the best road system it is possible to have.

However, it seems only right that everyone should realize how much of the price they pay at the service station goes to buy, not gasoline itself, but better roads.

PLATFORM HIGHLIGHTS

Chicago, (AP)—Here are highlights of the Democratic party's platform as adopted by its national convention early today:

CIVIL RIGHTS—Stidestepped endorsement of the controversial Supreme Court decision outlawing racial segregation in public schools, but pledged the party to advance individual rights and liberties of all Americans. It declared the party recognized decisions of the court to be a part of the law of the land, but declined to pledge itself, in so many words, to carry out those decisions.

FOREIGN POLICY—Charged that American ties with friendly nations have been weakened by Eisenhower administration policies of what it called "bluster and bluff" without "dynamic action."

DOMESTIC POLICY—Charged that the Eisenhower administration is stunting economic progress and failing to provide prosperity for farmers, small business men, low income workers, old people on small pensions and inadequate savings, and young persons seeking an education.

AGRICULTURE—Condemned Republican "failure" to halt decline in farm income, and promised Democratic program to restore "full 100 per cent parity" which it

Kerr Resorts to Caustic Ridicule Of Administration

Chicago, (AP)—For Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, the circus isn't dead, it's in Washington under the billing: Eisenhower administration.

Kerr used heavy ridicule in his speech to the Democratic National Convention last night when he lambasted the Republican regime.

His talk touched off a colorful demonstration by his own Oklahoma delegation. Its members donned Indian headdresses and whooped and pranced around the platform from which he spoke.

Of President Eisenhower's heart attack and operation, Kerr said: "I don't aim to discuss the health issue because neither I nor any other man can tell whether Eisenhower could survive another four years of office."

"But the millions of American farmers know they could not survive another four years of Eisenhower."

Under Eisenhower, Kerr said, the families of farmers and workers have had "a terrible rendezvous with deception." He said Republican administrations are conducting "a billion-dollar circus."

Glamor in the Supermarket Is Latest Gimmick to be Added

New York, (AP)—Glamor in the supermarket is the latest gimmick in this highly competitive business. Its aim is to take the chill off the present day miracles of efficiency and push-button self-service our groceries have become.

First, designers glamorize the market to lure the woman shopper away from another giant down the street. Then they try to soothe her so that she will slow down her headlong pace among the stacks of cans and prepackaged vegetables. The theory is that when relaxed she becomes a prey to impulse buying.

Pink marble stairwells, bronze statues, even wild ducks in a pond are some of the new gambits. With picture windows overlooking the meat cutting and packaging room, as one supermarket designer puts it quaintly, "we're trying to recapture the feeling of the old sawdust butcher shop."

A new shopping center opening on Long Island in October plans an ice skating rink that can double for fashion shows.

A midwest food chain decorates its markets with glass and steel giraffes whose heads sway in the breeze. Another chain in the east displays food products on spokes of colorful wheels.

Some of the older supermarkets are repainting their walls in pumpkin, chocolate or canary. A New York design firm says this is "to bring warmth, color and gaiety into the markets and to offset the coldness of gadgetry and the super efficiency that awes the average customer and sends her scurrying for the door."

Glamor entering the supermarket doesn't mean the end of gadgetry, designers assure you, but as still more automation takes hold to provide efficiency and speed in the marketplace, even newer methods and techniques will be devised to offset the coldness.

With mobiles, murals and sculpture already there—and walls decorated with cut outs of cows, butter churns and straw hatted farmers—what is there left, except maybe soft lights and sweet music? And already some of them pipe in the music.

Why "Good-Time Charlie" Suffers Uneasy Bladder

Such a common thing as urine eating or drinking may be a source of mild, but annoying bladder irritation—making you feel like you have to go often. And this is true, with regular urination, the bladder is irritated by the acid in the urine. This irritation is usually not a problem, but it can become a problem if you have a urinary tract infection. In this case, the irritation is caused by the bacteria in the urine. If you have a urinary tract infection, you should see a doctor. He will prescribe antibiotics to kill the bacteria. You should also drink plenty of water to help flush the bacteria out of your system.

turtles. He make a trap of poultry netting from two to four feet in height and with a shallow, wide throat. The traps are set at the edge of sloughs and ponds and are submerged to about two-thirds

Air Force Starting ROTC Program at State University

University Park—With an Air Force ROTC program for women students scheduled to begin next month at the Pennsylvania State University, the Air Force has assigned a Women's Air Force officer to the Penn State faculty.

She is 1st Lt. Renee Rublin, now serving in USAF headquarters in Wiesbaden, Germany. She is a graduate of the University of California where she received her bachelor's and master's degrees.

Freshman, sophomore, and junior women students at the University this fall who are interested in the WAF "Cadette" program may make application for enrollment, explains Col. Daniel F. Riva, professor of air science.

Penn State was one of ten leading colleges and universities chosen to offer the program on an experimental basis. The purpose of the program is to train officers for the Women's Air Force.

Upon completion of the advanced course, women students will be commissioned as second lieutenants, the same as men students completing the program, and will be entitled to all pay and benefits accorded male officers. While enrolled in the advanced program, they will receive subsistence pay of 90 cents per day, the same as the men students.

The program for women students is voluntary, Colonel Riva explained, and a woman student enrolled may withdraw at any time.

Youngsville Man Enjoys Retirement

Youngsville—George W. Peterson, who retired August 4 after 62 years of employment for the Star Manufacturing Company, is prepared to enjoy his "vacation" at home, with no particular plans in mind except to "putter around the yard", and take care of his flowers and garden.

Mr. Peterson's real hobby, however, is still working in his garage making things. He has always liked to work with his hands and enjoyed his work of cabinet-making, at which he started when he was 15 years old, when working hours were long and pay was small. In those days, he recalls he used to "dream" with the other men of the time when there would be vacation with pay.

Born in Sheffield, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Peterson, he and his wife, the former Julia Lawson of Murray Hill, with their son, Klahr A. Peterson, live at 229 West Main street.

MRS. NORA PETERSON IS HONORED GUEST

Wrightsville—Mrs. Nora Peterson was honored guest at a reception at the church Saturday evening in observance of her 75th birthday anniversary. Relatives and friends were in attendance from Jamestown, Bemus Point, N. Y.; North Warren, Warren, Lander, Russell, Sugar Grove, Youngsville, and this immediate vicinity.

Mrs. Peterson received many lovely gifts, a sum of money, and cards, and the evening was concluded with the serving of refreshments.

DAR MEETING

General Joseph Warren Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold a business meeting at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday in the Jefferson Room of Warren Public Library. A good attendance is desired, since this is the last meeting preceding the state conference, where the local chapter will be a hostess unit, with Mrs. W. C. Fuellhart as a hostess regent.

MAHAFFY REUNION

The Mahaffy family reunion will be held Sunday, August 19, at Allen Park, Jamestown, and a good attendance is desired. Dinner will be served at 1:00 p. m., all members to bring a turkey, rolls and table service, the coffee, cream, ice cream and milk for the children to be provided.

Highlight Events At Chautauqua

Rise Stevens, mezzo-soprano from the Metropolitan, will sing in the amphitheatre Saturday evening, August 25, to climax the eighth week of program activities for the institution's summer season. The coming week will also include a performance of "Rigoletto", three Symphony concerts, and the annual Institute of World Missions.

At 3:00 p. m. this Saturday, August 18, the Symphony concert will feature Almata Hyman, violinist and Chautauqua Music Award winner. An "Orchestral Pops" program will be presented at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday, and the final appearance of the orchestra will be Wednesday evening.

A Gala Concert of Chautauqua Artists will be the special offering next Thursday evening, also at 8:30 in the amphitheatre. At 4:00 p. m. the same day, Robert Woodside will be heard in an amphitheatre organ recital.

Final opera of the season at Norton Memorial Hall will be the staging of Verdi's "Rigoletto" on Monday.

Bryant Day exercises will take place at noon on Saturday, August 25.

The last sacred song service of the 83rd season will be held at 8:00 p. m. August 26, with Cecil Stewart directing the choir and soloists.

WCTU Article Is of Interest

Mrs. F. E. Kapp, Tidoute, who is president of the Warren County WCTU, has submitted an interesting article from The National Voice, telling in detail of the 20th World WCTU convention held this summer in Bremen, Germany. It says, in part:

"The Union in Germany is hostess to the convention. The present president, Frau Anna Klara Fischer, is well known, well loved and highly esteemed by the WCTU. Leaders and many others who have watched her unfinching courage and tenacity of purpose, in holding together her band of faithful ones through a cruel war which was to rob her of her distinguished husband, and turn into a heap of rubble her lovely home."

"Weakened by privation, by the mental strain that every international-minded, peace-loving soul experiences in a time of warfare, and sorrowing for her loss, she yet exerted all her gifts of intellect, experience and diplomacy to rebuild not only the shattered, depleted Union, but also once more to set up places of refreshment to serve workers, school children, students, housewives and business people, so that well-nourished bodies might not know a craving for alcohol, but be surrounded by examples of nutrition and comfort by which to set a standard in their home life."

"It is obvious that for a German organization to offer so soon to entertain a large Convention requires faith and enterprise of a kind that should evoke an enthusiastic response from National Unions in every corner of the world."

"The World officers are Mrs. John Forrester-Paton of Scotland, president; Miss Isabel McCorkun-

Men---Here's What the Girls Would Most Like to Do

MEN, here's a tip for you. In a recent YWCA poll in which 15,253 girls and women were questioned about what they would most like to do, more than 15,000 of them put travel at the head of the list.

And when it came to listing their favorite fun activity, the majority were strongly in favor of putting on their dancing shoes and stepping out for an evening of rug cutting.

How does this consensus affect you men? It's simple. If you want the girls you are planning to marry in June or have already married to enjoy life, don't forget a woman's love of travel and dancing.

Your idea of fun may be quiet evenings at home and your idea of a vacation may be fishing or hunting.

But don't forget that if the girl you marry is companionable enough to let you have your evenings at home, if she'll even go along with you on your camping trips, you might do your part to see that she gets to do some of the things that come first with her.

Every now and then she may want to get dressed up and go dancing. And as a change of pace now and then she might like to do a little traveling instead of going back year after year to where the fish are supposed to be biting.

CONDUCT YOUR OWN POLL

YOU might even conduct a little private poll of your own with two questions:

"Honey, if you could go anywhere you want to go this vacation, where would it be?"

And "What would you really like to do next Saturday night? You name it and we'll do it."

But if you get her to wishing, be sure you are prepared to try to gratify the wish.

Business and Professional Women's Club Begins Season With Musicals

One of the most successful early social gatherings of the season was held Tuesday evening at the Woman's Club, when the executive committee of Warren Business and Professional Women's Club welcomed members and guests at a musical tea.

President Arvilla Ittel welcomed the group with an original "Recipe for a Successful Year".

The musical portion of the program opened with accordion selections by Guy Smith and Stewart Punskey, both playing with a feeling that showed their real love of music. Guy's choice of numbers was on the serious side, Moonlight by Al Mathews, Andantino by Lemare, and a portion of a Liszt Hungarian Rhapsody. Stewart's selections, on the gay theme, were El Relicario by Jose Padilla, and The Washington Post March by Sousa.

These were followed by a local group by Mrs. Mary Potter Schreiber, Kane, who pleased with three lovely selections from the Cara Roma song cycle, The Wandering One: Absence, The Prayer, and The Return. She was accompanied by Miss Margaret Larson, also of Kane.

The audience howled with laughter as George Cunningham localized his musical monologue, "The New Janitor at WNAE", using names of BPW members. Accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Engstrom, George impersonated, with accent, a janitor whose secret desire is to be a radio announcer.

Next presentation was a flute solo, "Waves of the Danube", an arrangement by Ivanavici, played by Miss Susan Werner and accompanied by Miss Martha Luppold. Miss Werner also was heard in two piano solos, Rainstorm by Harris and Menuet by Pederewski. This accomplished young artist left no doubt in the mind of her audience that she as well on her way to a successful musical career.

In the final number, Mrs. Margaret Drivas, Warren's own charming vocalist, was heard to splendid advantage in the hauntingly lovely Lullaby by Mozart and I'll See You Again by Noel Coward. She was accompanied by Miss Adelaide Swanson.

Mrs. Marion Davis, first vice president, then unveiled a scroll, hand-painted by Miss Vetta Ittel of University Park, Iowa, with the club's Collect, and presented to the club as a gift from President Arvilla Ittel.

Mrs. Evelyn Griffin and Miss Peg McGonnell presided at the tea table, Miss Werner and Miss Luppold supplying background music. Clubrooms were attractively decorated with white candles and gladiol arrangements. Guests included members and friends from Kane and Youngsville.

Serving as committee for the event were Miss Ittel, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Griffin and Miss McGonnell.

*70,000,000 Up In Smoke

This is the staggering amount of money spent last year on forest fires. In addition to dollars, carelessly caused forest fires consumed enough board feet of lumber to build 50,000 five-room homes. They destroyed wildlife, valuable watersheds and recreation areas.

9 out of 10 of these fires were started by well-meaning but careless people. So please—any time you're out-of-doors be careful with every fire.

Outside the Body

"Drop him in the varnish. Put him in the dye. Who wants alcohol in drink? Not I, not I, not I."

Whoever wrote those pretty lines, I agree with them. "Not I, not I," for the drink that makes these humans stagger around ... jes' last night I was walking sorta' slow like, so many humans in my way, as I was trying to get to the other side of the street, and one of these staggering humans stepped on my foot ... it hurt, too, but he staggered on and didn't even look at me ... No, "Not I, not I," 'course I'm only a dog, but I don't want any of this that makes people stagger ...

Rags.

Washington, D. C. — Latest statistics from the Yale University Center for the Study of Alcohol place the number of alcoholics in the United States at 4,589,000, of whom 705,000 are women.

This amounts to 4,390 alcoholics for each 100,000 of population on a nation-wide basis, and carries further an increase in rate which began after 1930. The 1930 rate, the lowest recorded, was 2,680 per 100,000 population.

Plan Program At Tennis Courts On Sunday Afternoon

A sparkling demonstration of the game "as she is played" will highlight official presentation of the Jaycee-constructed tennis courts to the borough Sunday afternoon at 1:30 p. m.

Burgess William E. Rice will be on deck to formally accept the Beaty Field tennis courts in behalf of the borough.

Then, after that brief ceremony, two experts from Warren, Ohio, Joe Holko and Al Jones, will provide the tennis demonstration. A set between the experts (one of whom has only one arm) and some local competition will follow.

These plans were heard last night at a regular meeting of Warren's Junior Chamber of Commerce, presided over by club president, Robert Gieger.

Members also heard plans formulated for a Jaycee husband-and-wife picnic on Tuesday, August 22, at the Akeley camp of Ralph Owens.

It was decided to send a delegation of local members and wives to Jamestown September 13 to be present at a banquet in Hotel Jamestown's Crystal Ballroom in honor of Wendell Ford, National Junior Chamber of Commerce director.

Plans were discussed for the organization's football project which includes parking and concessions at Warren High School football games on Memorial Field this fall.

George Newman and his father were on hand to describe their experiences at the All-American Soap Box Derby in Akron and to thank the Jaycees for their contribution to the trip.

Resident of Titusville Home Dies at Age of 104

Funeral services will be held in Girard Saturday for Robert M. Cross, 104, who died Wednesday at the Presbyterian Home in Titusville. Cross came to this country from England when he was four years old.

Just before his 104th birthday, Mr. Cross, above, pointed out his secret of long life and his philosophy by saying, "A contented mind is the answer. You get a contented mind through prayer. If you're right with man you're right with God."

In the past 12 years, he had been unable to read and was nearly blind in recent years. His hearing, however, remained acute, and he kept his fine sense of humor and cheerfulness.

Mr. Cross had served as superintendent of the North Girard Presbyterian Church Sunday School for 35 years, as a member of the board of elders for 40 years and sang with the choir for more than 50 years.

Southern Votes

way by majority-rule requirements in their delegations.

The practical certainty of Stevenson's nomination was such that speculation over his possible vice presidential running mate became acute.

In the absence of any word from Stevenson, the race appeared to be narrowing into a three-way contest between Senators Estes Kefauver and Albert Gore of Tennessee and Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota.

None of these three took any public part in a carefully staged drama in which the party's conflicting Northern and Southern delegations met at the civil rights crossroads and decided to march into the general election campaign under one banner.

Urging that action was former President Truman, a Harriman backer who has contended Stevenson isn't a fighting candidate.

Delayed until the early morning hours had dwindled the convention's television audience, a compromise platform drafted by a committee headed by Rep. John McCormack of Massachusetts, gavelled through by Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas on a voice vote.

Southerners indicated privately they found the committee's plank palatable, although they previously had condemned it publicly. No Dixie member raised his voice in the platform debate although some Southern delegations registered their official opposition.

Proponents of a stronger plank spoke their pieces under a time limit controlled by McCormack.

When they were through exhorting the Democrats to endorse flatly the Supreme Court decision outlawing racial segregation in the public schools, Truman stepped up to a microphone attached to the railing of his box.

Truman said he wanted to "contribute to harmony" among Democrats—an objective few delegates thought he fostered when he endorsed the candidacy of Harriman and subsequently said Stevenson "can't win" in November.

The peace Northerners, the platform said the party "recognizes the Supreme Court of the United States as one of the three constitutional and coordinate branches of the federal government, superior to and separate from any political party, the decisions of which are a part of the law of the land."

While Southerners gulped at this, many Northerners were far from satisfied with the statement that the court's school opinion had "brought consequences of vast importance to our nation as a whole and especially to communities directly affected."

This cleared the last foreseen obstacle to Stevenson's nomination and left the field open for vice presidential aspirants to jockey for his favor.

James Finnegan, Stevenson's campaign manager, said the decision had been made as between possible candidates. From another source it was reported, however, that Finnegan was arguing against selection of a Roman Catholic.

Finnegan, a Catholic, was represented as believing the religious issue ought not to be raised.

That would eliminate Sen. John Kennedy of Massachusetts and Mayor Robert F. Wagner Jr. of New York City from consideration.

The national committee approved the seating of a South Carolina delegation headed by David Dows of Bradley.

The committee also divided Mississippi's 15 votes by approving a Contest Committee report allotting eight votes to a group headed by Perry W. Howard, Negro attorney and national committeeman for 32 years, and seven to a group led by Wirt Yerger, Jr., Young Republican from Jackson, Miss.

The platform draft will be hammered out by the Resolutions Committee headed by Sen. Prescott Bush of Connecticut.

The draft will go Saturday to the full national committee, which will reward it on Sunday for expected adoption by the Republican National Convention Tuesday.

Bush said the platform framers are mindful of President Eisenhower's request that it be kept short and free "of denunciation and bombast."

Dirksen, of the Civil Rights subcommittee, scoffed at the civil rights plank the Democrats adopted in Chicago and said, "There will be no such serpentine wesseling on our part. The Supreme Court has interpreted the Constitution and that's the law of the land."

Hurricane Is Doomed

Miami, Fla.—Hurricane Betsy, picking up a little speed, appeared doomed today to certain death in the cold reaches of the North Atlantic.

The intense storm, killer of 30 persons, continued along its northeasterly course about 450 miles east of Jacksonville, Fla. Reconnaissance planes spotted the disturbance at Latitude 30.3, Longitude 74.3 West, and noted its quickened pace.

The Weather Bureau said in an advisory at 5 a. m. EST that Betsy was moving northeast at 13 m.p.h.

Weathermen continued to keep a close watch on a squally area about 200 miles northeast of Puerto Rico.

The 103rd Engineer Battalion, Philadelphia, prepared assault boats for day-long practice on the lake at this 17,000-acre military reservation.

Capping the day's training schedule was a night assault across the lake. The battalion planned to use 14 boats, each manned by three engineers and each carrying 12 riflemen.

Penn'a Delegation At San Francisco Like Dick and Ike

By The Associated Press

An Eisenhower-Nixon ticket has the support of 50 of Pennsylvania's 70 delegates to the Republican National Convention, according to an Associated Press poll.

All the delegates polled—only two could not be reached—were solidly in favor of President Eisenhower with the vice presidential spot uncommitted.

Where delegates indicated they were "undecided" on the vice presidential nomination, most said they would support any candidate Eisenhower wants, including Nixon.

There was almost unanimous agreement among the delegates. Those undecided about the vice presidential choice said they felt Eisenhower should have the last word.

Among delegates who declined to back Nixon immediately these possible vice presidential candidates were advanced: Gov. Theodore McKeldin of Maryland, former Gov. Dan Thornton of Colorado and Gov. Christian Herter of Massachusetts.

News Letters From Co. I

Sunday, August 12, 1956.

Troops of the 3rd Battalion, 112th Infantry Regiment arrived at Indiantown Gap in good shape and the last unit was in by 3:00 p. m. Camp organization started immediately and before the men were ready for bed the barracks were scrubbed clean, windows were shined, and the men sure appreciated being able to go to bed with clean sheets in their barracks.

General Biddle, the Adjutant General of Pennsylvania, General Fluck 28th Division Commander, General Kemp, Assistant Division Commander, and General Bailey, Division Artillery Commander welcomed the Officers of the 28th Division at a meeting held this evening.

Numerous special meetings were held during the evening and officers and Non-Commissioned Officers were busy preparing for instruction to begin bright and early Monday morning.

Monday, August 13, 1956. Training got under way at 7:30 a. m. as scheduled. The men were up at 5:30 a. m. in order to stand reveille, eat and do the necessary cleaning and housekeeping chores before reporting for training.

The training today was accomplished in a business-like manner. New men were receiving recruit training, some men were taking preparatory marksmanship training in order to be ready for range firing later, and the remainder were being instructed in hasty field fortification and camouflage. Fire drill was held this evening in order to insure proper procedures and protection in case of emergency. All the men of the Battalion stood muster prior to the evening meal in order to be qualified to draw pay for the camp period.

Drivers and communication personnel are busy as beavers. Supplies and equipment must be kept moving and telephones and switchboards are being installed with the equipment available in the units. Switchboard operators are on duty 24 hours a day and the experience gained by all concerned will be of great value in future operations.

It is quite an experience to be in camp once more and see an Army Camp come alive again. The enthusiasm is building up and when it is time to return to home station the men will look and be more like soldiers. It takes time to adjust and each year past experience makes the summer encampment run more smoothly.

CARL H. OLSON.

ELUDES POLICE

Jamestown Sun Police agencies at an early hour today reported that Lonnie Buchanan, 23-year-old former butcher sought in the slaying of his young wife, was still at large. Buchanan, of Dunkirk, has been the object of an extensive police search after the dismembered body of his wife, Bessie, 20, was found Sunday afternoon in a thicket near Brocton. Authorities believe that the suspected killer may have headed for Tennessee or Mississippi after reportedly departing by bus from Erie, Pa., Sunday. Four arrests have been made in connection with the brutal slaying. Three Dunkirk men have been charged with accessories after the fact for driving Buchanan from Dunkirk to Erie. And a fourth has been nabbed as a material witness. Silas Williams, 42,

DRIVE CAREFULLY!

You get more car when you buy it... more dollars when you sell it! Chevy has the highest resale value of the leading low-priced models!

Why people who used to buy higher priced cars are changing to Chevrolet

Sales and official registration figures show that the higher priced cars are losing more and more buyers to Chevrolet. And it isn't just because a Chevrolet costs less, either!

If you buy a higher priced car instead of a Chevrolet, what do you get in return for those extra hundreds of dollars?

More room? No, because the difference in room is usually measured in fractions of inches—often in Chevrolet's favor! Better road-ability? Not with Chevy's wedged-to-the-road stability and sure-footed cornering ability. Better performance? Well, Tom McCahill, automotive expert for Mechanix Illustrated, called Chevrolet "the greatest performance buy ever offered at any time in America!" Result: more buyers are deciding they'd rather drive a sweet-handling Chevrolet even if it cost less! Wouldn't you?

America's largest selling car—2 million more owners than any other make!

Restrictions on Age Group Which May Use Polio Serum Are Removed

All restrictions on the use of polio vaccine, as far as age groupings go, have been removed by Pennsylvania Health Department, according to Dr. Ross E. Bryan, Warren County Medical Director. Use of the vaccine had been more or less restricted to those in the age group from 1 to 16 years. Now anyone may have their doctor administer the inoculations. While not familiar with the exact amount of Salk serum on hand in Warren County, Dr. Bryan said it probably was plentiful enough to meet any increased demand. Some 15,000 shots have already been given to children in Warren County from the ages of one to 16. The shots are administered in a series of three, the first two shots a month apart and the third about seven months later. Shots cost about $4 each. Parents who cannot afford to have their children inoculated are reminded the state provides funds for them. Vicinity health officials 'continue to "hold their breath" as no cases of polio have been yet reported in the county.

General Business In June Reaches a New High Record

University Park—General business in leading areas of Pennsylvania during June reached a new high record for the month, but was down from that of May.

The Bureau of Business Research at the Pennsylvania State University reported that the Index of General Business in June reached 167, as compared to 173 in May and 153 a year ago. The Index uses the years 1947-49 as 100.

For the first half of 1956, general business showed a gain of 12 per cent over a year ago.

Industrial power sales, anthracite coal production, petroleum production, and sales of ordinary life insurance showed gains from May to June while sales of new cars and trucks, bituminous coal production, carloadings, and street railway company revenue passenger traffic were down from May to June. Building contracts and postal receipts also declined while factory employment, hours, and payrolls showed little change from May to June.

Compared with a year ago, department store sales in the Third Federal Reserve District were up, reaching a new all-time record high. Bank deposits, factory payrolls, sales of industrial power, sales of ordinary life insurance, and telephones also showed a gain from a year ago.

Factory employment and industrial activity were at their second best points for the month, exceeded only by 1953. Anthracite and bituminous coal turned out the best production for the month since 1953. Factory hours and postal receipts showed no change from last year.

Building operations, as determined by permits issued, were under 1955, but above the preceding two years. Carloadings were the lowest for June since 1952 and building contracts since 1953. Petroleum production was under both 1954 and 1955. Sales of new cars and trucks were the lowest for June since 1952 and street railway revenue traffic was at the lowest level for the month in recent years.

The summary for the Warren area follows: Warren business in June was generally good. Industrial power sales and telephones made new monthly records. Building operations were at their second best point for the month, the peak having been reached in 1951. Postal receipts, although under the last two years, were over prior years. New car sales in Warren County, however, dropped to the lowest June level since 1952.

GOLD-PLATED TURBINES

Columbus, Ohio (AP)—Scientists at Battelle Memorial Institute here believe gold-plated turbine blades may increase the life and operating efficiency of jet engines. The institute reports that experiments show a thin plating of gold helps protect turbine blade metals from deteriorating at high temperatures. Many turbine blades are made in part from molybdenum, a metal that corrodes at high temperatures. At 1800 F., the institute reports, the molybdenum burns rapidly, forming a gaseous compound. The discovery was made during a research program for the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics.

Court of Common Pleas for the County of Warren, August Term, 1956, No. 37.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that, on July 18, 1956, the petition of Ernest C. Schreckengost and Verdie Irene Schreckengost was filed in the above named Court, praying for a decree to change his name to Ernest C. Shreck and her name to Verdie Irene Shreck.

The Court has fixed Wednesday the 12th day of September, 1956, at 10:00 A. M., at the courthouse at Warren, Pennsylvania, as the time and place for the hearing of said petition, when and where all persons interested may appear and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the said petition should not be granted.

Grow Old Gracefully

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

GROWING old gracefully may be a splendid thing, but even growing old awkwardly is better than not growing up at all.

Here are some typical remarks made by women in their middle years that made their listeners want to go off and hide. All related to their looks or to complaints they received.

"Oh, do you really think so? I always found gray hair repulsive."

"Well, I did like it, too, but I figured why spend that kind of money on an old girl like myself? So I bought a chess board."

"My dear, when you get to my age, you will stop looking in the mirror altogether. When youth fails you, there's no point."

From a woman of 60: "Oh, I stopped smoking at 80. I figured it was unbecoming to my decrepitude."

"I can't enjoy wearing anything any more. It seems like so much work. I just put on any old thing."

"Oh, it's dowdier, but I suppose it's all right for me now I'm fifty. I'll take it."

If these remarks look silly or paper, they sound twice as silly. Growing up should give one wisdom enough not to haul out age as a gruesome prospect and an excuse for all laziness.

Western Union Co. Plans to Increase Telegraph Rates

Washington (AP)—The Western Union Telegraph Co. has notified the Federal Communications Commission its plans to increase press telegraph rates 8.22 per cent, effective Sept. 14.

The company estimated the hike would increase its revenues by $268,000 a year from this type of business, provided there is no shrinkage in press patronage as a result of the increase.

The notification of plans for higher press rates is a part of an over-all rate revision program by Western Union. It is designed to produce additional revenues of around 10 million dollars annually, if made effective for both interstate and intrastate traffic.

The company in late June filed proposed hikes in the charges for all of its services except press. These ranged from 10 to 25 per cent and included a projected increase of about 11.3 per cent in the rates for interstate public telegraph. The company estimated these changes, which it sought to make effective through 30-day notice, would yield additional revenue of $11,400,000 a year.

However, the FCC issued a suspension order and announced public hearings would be required during September. This brought from Western Union a revised proposal to hold the increase on interstate public telegrams to 9.8 per cent, and the FCC canceled the proposed hearings. The FCC announced it would permit these revisions, estimated to increase public billings by about $9,687,000 a year.

Western Union said the projected changes in press rates were handled separately to permit completion of conferences with the American Newspaper Publishers Assn.'s Communication's Committee on the matter.

In a statement today, Western Union said the higher rates were necessary to meet labor costs which increased June 1.

Firemen at Garland Plan Saturday Show

Garland—At the regular meeting of the local Volunteer Firemen's Association, conducted by President Bob Lanning, final reports were heard from the committees staging the Saturday Horse Show. Work bees are being held each evening this week to work out last-minute details.

Cards of acceptance for the parade have been received from the Meadville Rescue Squad, Sugar Grove Fire and Drug Corps and Color Guard, and the Accordion Kids of Warren.

More replies are expected by Saturday, besides the several units listed in an earlier report.

There was also discussion on insurance for the event, and John Zolko was appointed to see about having bleachers available for the show.

New members voted into the organization were Leo Stec, regular member, and Art Payden of Grand Valley, social member.

Rural Sociologists Submit Report on Interesting Survey

University Park—Farm - bred youth appear to be paid less than young people from villages in their first jobs.

This is one of many conclusions reached by rural sociologists at the Pennsylvania State University in their far-reaching survey of rural youth which started in 1947.

Boys and girls from non-farms, open country homes occupied a middle position between farm and village youth as far as first-job pay went. Girls, in general, received less money for their first jobs than boys, the survey found.

Youths who changed jobs during a given period were found to earn slightly higher salaries than those who kept the same employment. Job changes did not appear to be related to place of residence.

It was found that high school graduates, while they earned only slightly more than those without diplomas at the start, were, for the most part, engaged in jobs that offered better prospects for financial and professional advancement.

The project began in 1947 as a long-term study of rural youth migration and occupational advancement. A group of 2,800 sophomores in 74 rural high schools have been studied through the years. Plans have been made to continue the study for at least three more years, tracing the transition of rural boys and girls from youth to adulthood.

The project now is being conducted in co-operation with the United States Department of Agriculture which is interested from the standpoint of talent found in rural areas. Dr. Roy C. Buck, associate professor of rural sociology, is in charge, assisted by Anna T. Wink, research associate, and John H. Allen, graduate assistant.

Letter to the Editor Recalls Bicycle Path Between Warren and Youngsville 59 Years Ago

Warren, Pa., July 28, 1956.

Times Publishing Co.

Dear Ed:

In your paper of a few days ago an item of a man riding a bicycle from the Allegheny Springs to Warren in an hour, this brought back fond, and sad memories of fifty-nine years ago. I go back clearly to the first sight I got of those odd looking vehicles with both rear and fore wheels the same size, so different than those high wheelers I was among the first to buy one of those new contraptions, called bicycles; bought it of W. B. Heck one of the big dealers in Warren, literally hundreds in stock, and many makes. I bought a Cleveland with wooden handle bars. Riding conditions were bad, ice and snow, deep mud, and deep dust, on hand all the time. Something had to be done, to make riding possible on the main roads, as there were nearly four thousand bicycles on the road in Warren and vicinity. The former writing means nothing, only bringing me up to the story I wish to give to the younger cyclist, and for the older ones to think about. Going back to 1897 the Warren press contained an article—the bicycles and build a path from Warren to Youngsville. Someone declared it a local law, that all bicycles should be taxed one dollar, and with one accord we responded until the fund reached over three thousand dollars, and the under path (as they called it) was started. Captain Wheelock and Major Windsor were appointed to oversee, and build the path, (and without pay). The path started a short distance below Struthers Wells, on the east side of the dirt road, near where the curb is now. Men and teams went ahead with plows and slip scraped. Picks and shovels, dug a trench four feet wide, and about six inches deep. Then came the hauling of the gravel, about ten teams, each with a set of dump plank, consisting of a bolster bed of 3x12 feet long, and the side plank, same length, 2x12 inches. The gravel was taken from the river, six men loading one wagon at a time. Jim Shutt and Hank Jackson were the loading bosses, Louise Weiler the builder of the path. They have all passed on years ago. He placed the loads of gravel as they came to the trench. The teams would straddle the trench and dump the gravel in one place, which was the right amount for depth, men would level it off and tamp it down, each load would lay about ten feet of path. I was among the first to hire out for team work. The first gravel was taken from the river at Reese's eddy in West Warren. As the work progressed, the next supply was taken from the river at the Green Farm. Next source was at Jackson's crossing, down a ramp at the end of the road at the Mat Jackson home now owned by Floyd Nichols. Here is where they let me start to work with father's team. The water was so low that one could drive to the middle of the river bed scarcely wetting the horses' feet. Next gravel was taken at Scott's Eddy. As we neared Irvineton some teams began to take from the Brokenstraw Creek, back of where the Forge is now. Then later from the Creek at the McKinney farm, now the Wilder Field. Then on with the path to East Youngsville, up in the town above the County farm. I kept my team in Mrs. Biddle's barn and boarded with one of her hired men. There were about four teams and several men in the advance crew preparing the road bed, and ten teams hauling gravel, with twelve loaders. I will say there were fourteen teams, and twenty men by hand. Teams were paid thirty cents per hour, hand labor ten cents, we advanced about one thousand feet per day or about a mile a week. I was on about six weeks, and it is six miles from Jackson's Crossing to Youngsville. The path crossed eleven R. R. tracks, but they were built up level with the ball of the rails. Two wheels could pass at any point of the path. It will be surprising if someone would ask me who rode this path. I would say old people. Children could not afford a wheel. I know what it was to buy my first wheel, and one of the middle class $125.00. All through Warren and the whole County all those that did not own a horse and buggy, bought a wheel. I saw many old men and women on the path. I could name a couple dozen men that were old sixty years ago. Many of the doctors traveled on wheels. D. I. Ball was one of the early riders, and here are two of the old whistlers boys, Mr. Bishop, D. A. V. ticket agent, and Perry D. Clark. There is more to this but I am quitting. Hard winters and flood water destroyed the road in a few years, but it was enjoyed by thousands while it lasted.

Yours,
ED HONHART,
Starbrick.

All Interested Are Invited to Visit State Game Lands

It has become the practice of many hunters trappers and other outdoors people to visit State Game Lands in Pennsylvania during the summer months. The Game Commission again invites all persons interested to see for themselves what is being done to improve conditions for wildlife on these tracts.

At present there are 196 of these publicly owned properties, and they aggregate 927,362 acres. The land was purchased with money derived from the sale of hunting licenses, Federal Pittman-Robertson Funds and other revenue accruing to the Game Fund. Many of the tracts contain thousands of acres, a few are comparatively small. The size is not always indicative of the value, and their dispersal throughout the state is important to wildlife and sportsmen.

All of the holdings are managed by the Commission, to produce additional food and cover so that wildlife will thrive and provide a maximum of recreation for hunters, naturalists, hikers and others who find enjoyment there. Most of the State Game Lands lie in wooded, mountainous country but some of them are made up partially or wholly of one-time farmland. Timber cuttings plantings and other practices on these tracts vary in relation to conditions found on each, also in relation to the species of game being managed there.

Game lands tours are often arranged through the proper field division office or the district Game Protector in charge when groups desire guide service and professional information. The reason for this is that many things being done to improve wildlife habitat or the way in which one operation fits into the over-all plan, will not be apparent at a casual glance.

Bitter Political Enemies Head South Korea Regime

Seoul, (P)—Bitter political enemies took office today as president and vice president of South Korea. Syngman Rhee began his third term as chief executive and Chang Myun was sworn in as his potential successor.

Chang, 56, in a blistering statement handed to newsmen after the inauguration, assailed Rhee's previous governments for violations of the constitution, prevailing corruption and disregard of national and human rights.

Chang did not speak at the inauguration, which was witnessed by an estimated 100,000 persons.

Rhee shook hands coolly with the man who soundly trounced his own vice presidential candidate in the May 15 elections. The two men exchanged no words.

Special Services Planned For The Jewish New Year

Special services will be conducted at Jewish synagogues and temples throughout the area in observance of the Jewish New Year, beginning at sunset Wednesday, September 5th.

According to legend, this is the 5717th year of the world since its creation. The High Holydays continue for a period of ten days. The season starts with Rosh Hashono, which means the "beginning of the year". On the morning of the New Year, the shofar, or ram's horn, is sounded as a call to conscience.

The High Holydays reach their climax with Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, on Saturday, September 15.

Jewish families spend most of that day in synagogues offering prayers which ask for forgiveness for faults and weaknesses. Many of the devout observers fast throughout the day. Traditionalist or Orthodox Jews observe Rosh Hashono for two days. Reform Jews for one.

GIANTS STAND BUMS ON HEAD, DROP THEM INTO 3RD PLACE; YANKS HEAD FOR THE SERIES

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

The Giants aren't dead. They're in last place, all right, but for the moment at least they've shaken off that cellar palor—reviving the somewhat tarnished world championship combination of Johnny Antonelli and Willie Mays to rock the pennant-pressing Brooklyn Dodgers out of second place in the tinging National League race.

The Brooks, who usually swallow southpaws whole like hors d'oeuvres, were standing on their heads when left Antonelli got through with them last night. He struck out 11 while giving just two hits to beat the Brooks and big Don Newcombe 1-0 on Mays' 21st home run.

It was the second Giant upset of the Dodgers in two nights and skidded Brooklyn two percentage points behind Cincinnati. The Redlegs took two from the Chicago Cubs, 4-3 in 15 innings and 7-3 in a six-inning nightcap called because of darkness in lightless Wrigley Field.

Milwaukee upped its lead a bit, going 2½ games up with a 4-1 decision over St. Louis.

Pittsburgh slowed down the Philadelphia Phillies 5-1.

In the American League, Dick Donovan threw a two-hitter as the Chicago White Sox walloped Kansas City 10-0. The first-place New York Yankees moved into a 10½-game bulge again by defeating Boston 6-4 while Detroit knocked off second-place Cleveland 1-0. Baltimore beat Washington 3-2 in 12 innings.

Antonelli, the one time Braves' bonus beauty who was 22-7 as the Giants won the 1954 world championship, gave up only a two-out single to Duke Snider in the fourth and an eighth-inning double by Charlie Neal. He retired 15 in a row, eight on strikeouts, after Snider's hit while gaining his 11th victory against 12 defeats.

Mays, whose home run beat the Dodgers 3-1 the night before, unloaded his big one in the fourth off Newcombe, who had won nine straight. Newk gave three hits before being lifted for a pinchhitter in the eighth—ending his string of complete games at six.

Warren Spahn's five-hitter colored his 196th major league victory and 13th of the season as the Braves wrapped it up with two in the fourth on one hit and three Cardinal errors. Ray Katt homered for the Cards Tom Poholsky lost it for a 7-9 record.

The Redlegs rode in on Frank Robinson's bases-loaded single in the opener after Ed Bailey and Pete Whisenant had swapped two-run homers. It was Bailey's 21st Johnny Klippstein won in relief.

Art Fowler won the shorthand nightcap, sailing in on Wally Patis' 23rd homer, a grand-slammer, and Burgess' eighth. Both came in the third.

The Pirates scored four in the eighth, starting with Frank Thomas' sacrifice fly that tied it 1-1. Ron Kline, who tossed a five-hitter and Bill Virdon had RBI singles in the big frame against Jack Meyer.

Little League ¼-Finals on Tap at Williamsport

Williamsport (P)—The race for the Pennsylvania Little League baseball crown continued today with four top contenders squaring off in quarter final games.

In the first game, at 3 p. m. Masonstown was lined up against Homer City, while Beaver was matched against Upper Darby in a 6 p. m. contest. Each has won the sectional title for its area.

In quarter final rounds yesterday two teams were dropped from the running when Braddock defeated Roosevelt Trail, 5-2, and Wilkes-Barre shut out Lebanon, 4-0.

The two teams meet Thursday in a semifinal game. The winner of the state eliminations will represent Pennsylvania in the annual Little League World Series beginning next Tuesday.

Busti Hollers As Elks Win Again, 4-1

Warren Elks won a disputed contest last night 4-1 over a Busti squad which screamed "Interference" as the local team started a three-run rally which won their game.

Disputed play came in the bottom of the sixth inning on the State Hospital diamond. Dick Kremer singled himself to first base. Then Gray hit a ground ball to the second baseman who touched the bag and fired to first.

However, at that moment, Kremer was only four or five feet from second running full tilt and as the ball winged toward his head he threw up his hands in self-defense. The unguided missile bounced off his arms.

Busti raved and hollered but umpires' decision of self-protection stood as the Elks went on to score three runs on three hits and a couple of walks to win the game. Pitcher Kremer gave up only two hits and a sore arm to the Busti team.

Alleged Charges Dealing With Professionalism Are Levelled at Olympic Star

Chicago (P)—The Central AAU is investigating alleged charges of professionalism against Bill Smith captain of the 1956 U. S. Olympic wrestling team.

Marvin Thomas Registration Committee head, said Smith appeared before the AAU group last night, but he did not disclose specific committee action. However, Thomas added that Smith would return to appear before the AAU next week pending further evidence about the alleged charges.

Smith, America's only Olympic wrestling champ in 1952, recently resigned a $4,500 a year job as teacher of an auto-driving course at the Rock Island, Ill., school system to enter the insurance business in Chicago.

Formerly of Council Bluffs, Iowa, Smith qualified for the 1956 Olympic team with a May 3 decision over Dan Hodge, the University of Oklahoma athlete at Hollywood, Calif.

USTA Refuses to Drop Use of Name 'Hanover'

Hanover (P)—The president of the U. S. Trotters Association (USTA) has refused bluntly to accede to a demand by the Harness Tracks of America (HTA) that he drop the name "Hanover" from the names of harness race horses.

The HTA had demanded in Detroit that the USTA drop the name Hanover from the horses bred on Lawrence Sheppard's Hanover Shoe Farms here. It charged that use of the name Hanover for standardbred horses was tied in with advertising for Hanover Shoe, Inc. a shoe firm owned by Sheppard, president of the USTA.

Sheppard replied yesterday to the HTA, an association of 18 of the leading parliamutuel tracks, that use of the name Hanover for standardbred horses is not a violation of the rules and not intended for advertising purposes.

While the HTA demanded that the change in name be made in 30 days, Sheppard said he would present the demand to the USTA at its December meeting.

Field of 135 to Open at Milwaukee

Milwaukee (P)—A hefty field of about 135 golfers, including defending champion Dr. Cary Middlecoff, open fire today in the 72-hole $35,000 Milwaukee Open Golf Tournament.

The field includes 65 players who qualified with 76 or under Tuesday and 80 exempt pros and amateurs who will get the "feel" of the Triphol Golf Club par-70 layout today for the first time under competitive conditions.

Middlecoff, who had been toying with the idea of passing up this tournament because of tendonitis condition in his left forearm, shot a 15-under-par 285 at Blue Mound to win the Milwaukee event last year.

Among the "older" hands shooting for the $6,000 top prize are Sam Snead, who hasn't cut much of a swath in tournament play this year; 46-year-old E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, who won the Tam All-American; Jimmy Demaret; Lloyd Mangrum; and Tommy Bolt.

Tam "World" titlist Ted Kroll is among the missing. He decided to take a week off after pocketing $50,000 for winning the "World."

Clarion River Regatta Finals Planned Sunday

Clarion—The Clarion Volunteer Firemen will stage their Sixth Semi-annual Boat Race, Sunday, Aug. 19th, at the Toby Bridge, 1 mile north of Clarion. Boat race pilots from New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio will compete in the Tri-State Association sanctioned race. Many of these drivers will qualify in the Clarion finals to compete in the National Finals at Cambridge, Maryland on Aug. 26.

Twenty-four races with eight classes of Hydroplanes and Racing Utility Outboards are scheduled, with the first race starting at 1:00 o'clock.

With many new improvements along the river to give racing fans a full view of the racing course, and some changes in the ¼ mile pyloned course which will guarantee faster speeds, plenty of thrills and spills are in store for the thousands of spectators anticipated.

Free shuttle buses will operate from the court house in Clarion to the race site for those who wish to avoid the traffic.

A completely equipped 8mm Movie Camera will be given as a gate prize.

Y. F. W. TOURNAMENT

Hershey (P)—Nine baseball teams from across the nation today qualified for the 4th annual Veterans of Foreign Wars Teen-er World Series. The elimination competition includes regional champions from nine United States divisions and the Panama Canal Zone. The youngsters, who must be from 13 to 15 years old, represent the cream of some 500 Teen-er teams in 100 leagues.

Handicap Tourney Planned Sunday at Corry Golf Course

An announcement that will interest many devotees of the game in the Warren area states that entries are being received daily for the 12th annual Don MacKenzie 18-hole handicap golf tournament to be held at the Corry Country Club on Sunday, according to Bob Bracken tourney chairman.

With the course in the best condition it has been in years, the club has high hopes of attracting the largest field in the history of Don MacKenzie play, Bracken said.

The entry fee of $10.00 includes golf, lunch, dinner and prizes, with starting time set at 9 a. m. Starting times are available to four-somes only on request, and club officials indicate that registrations in advance will be appreciated. While the field will be limited, post entries will be accepted.

An impressive prize list of more than $400 in value is being offered, with prizes for 3 low gross, 5 low net, longest drive, closest pitch, two low putts and two duffers. Players entering with a handicap must have that figure attested by their home pros and they must be 80 per cent.

Individual trophies will be awarded to low net and low gross.

Pitch of Bottle Ends Beer Sales at Stateline

A wild pitch of a beer bottle last Saturday has led Stateline Speedway officials to drop their Alcoholic Beverage Control permit. Manager Len Briggs said that "too many hard feelings" ruled out the sale of alcoholic beverages. The bottle-throwing incident last Saturday led directly to a spectacular crash on the track.

In another policy revision, Stateline has upped the age limit for its stock cars to 1949 models. It is expected this will bring in 10-15 more cars for the race Saturday beginning at 8 30 p. m. Previous minimum year for stocks was 1958.

Among the new drivers to compete on the 25-lap feature card because of the reduced minimum-years requirement will be Jamestowners "Wild Bob" Hallett (1950 Olds) and Sammy LaMancuso (1951 Plymouth) and Ashville jockeys Jim Fardink (1950 Hudson) and Walt James (1951 Hudson).

Al Tassin, Bradford newcomers, and Joe Sauner of Jamestown split feature victories in the 25-lappers before 1,700 fans last Saturday.

Ronnie Kline Pitches Pirates to 5-1 Victory

Philadelphia (P)—Young Ronnie Kline, fireballing rightlander of the Pittsburgh Pirates, wore a happy smile today—and he couldn't be blamed.

Kline, who has been pitching good ball for the Pirates and not getting much support at the plate, beat the Philadelphia Phillies 5-1 on a five-hitter last night. The Pirates backed him up with a 12-hit attack and heads-up baseball, particularly by Roberto Clemente.

Kline didn't give up a hit until after two were out in the fifth, when three consecutive singles netted the Phillies their only run. He settled down to allow only two harmless hits the rest of the way as he recorded his 10th victory in 23 decisions.

The Case of the "Honest Corpse"

OFTEN THE sense of honesty and truth seems to WITHIN people. The incident is told of a young oriental who had difficulty getting a ration of silk for a burial shroud. Not until he literally brought the corpse of his uncle to the ration board was the silk allotment granted him. A dead man had to vouch for his honesty... his past history for not telling the truth was against him.

"Your dollar buys MORE in a TRIANGLE store!"

HE'S FOR DST
Mayfield, Ky., (P)—In the midst of the agitation for and against Daylight Saving Time, Mayor Clinton Boyd received this letter:
"Dear Mayor Boyd:
"I am a little boy, 7 years old. I have a real bad habit of waking up every morning at 4:30 when daylight comes in my window. I am so glad to see the daylight that I begin to crow like a rooster. This seems to bother my mother and daddy, because for some reason they don't like daylight.
"My mother says if you would move up your clocks, I wouldn't wake up until 5:30, and she would be in a better humor all day.

"Thank you, Bobby Sutor."
Bobby's letter no doubt wasn't the only reason, but afterward Mayfield went on Daylight Saving Time for the first time since World War II.

EARLY STEAMBOATS
In 1786, James Rumsey ran a steamboat with a power pump on the Potomac at the rate of four miles an hour. Robert Fulton is credited with making the first practical steamboat trip with the Clermont.

Ancient Frigate Rotting Away In Baltimore Harbor

By Martin Sutphin
Baltimore (P)—Floating amid rubbish in Baltimore harbor is the historic U.S.S. Constellation—a homeless ship.
The ancient frigate is exposed to the elements, it ships 18 to 24 inches of water a day and the rotting wood of its hull gives way with every little pressure.
The sailing warship, the oldest vessel in the United States Navy, was launched here in 1797. The 36-gun "Old Lady" battled and beat the big boys of the French fleet during the Quasi War (1797-1800), and some historians credit her with knocking out more guns on enemy ships than her sister-ship, the Constitution ("Old Ironsides").
Lamenting the homeless condition of the Constellation is Leonard F. Cushing, the Boston Naval Yard architect who arranged to bring the ship from Boston to Baltimore last August.
"It seems to me somebody is passing the buck," Cushing said. After ceremonies which greeted the Constellation's arrival here last Aug. 9, announcement was made of plans to build a final resting place for the ship at Ft. McHenry.
The Constellation was set afloat at the foot of the floating drydock which transported it from Boston, but with the threat of hurricanes it was shifted behind covered piers at Locust Point.
Later the historic vessel was transferred back to the Ft. McHenry Naval Reserve Training Center Pier. On March 13 it was moved to the City Recreation Pier at the foot of Broadway, and on May 8 it finally was anchored at a Point Brexhe pier.
The Constellation Commission of Maryland plans to rebuild the ship as a national shrine at a special berth at Ft. McHenry, but the commission says the steel strike has delayed an order for 332 tons of steel piling needed to build the berth.
The commission also must wait on final approval of its plans by the National Park Service.
Cushing says he knows every timber of the ship and he does not believe it can stand another hurricane, and perhaps not even another winter.
Every couple of days a city fire boat crew inspects the ship and pumps out water. And the once proud Constellation sits at mooring, inaccessible to the public, its future as cloudy as the waters of Baltimore harbor.
